The Louisville Jonrnal says it never ordered Gen. Boyle to arrest private citizens. This is a very extraordinary denial. In an article of extreme severity, where the Democrat declared that "no more men and no more money" ought to be given to carry out the war in an unconstitutional way, the Journal declared that those who held such opinions merited "a treytor's down." In consequence of the sport.

Of the 100 successful pupils in the 8th grade, the three following, viz: Cora Benh son, Bertle Benson and Etta Mitter, passed to the 3th grade. At the recent examination the 10th grade transferred a large proportion of its pupils to the 9th, and within the last three months the same grade transferred 31 pupils to the 9th, of whom 24 have now passed to the 8th. Some of the teachers who contributed so largely to the above results, will open a vacation school at the school building on Thirteenth and Green streets, the first Monday in July.

W. C. Hubbard.

Dr. Barnaz Sears, General Agent of the Peabody Educational Fund, has issued a circular giving a statement of the mode in which the trustees of the fund propose to apply the charity committed to their charge. He says:

The direct aim of the agent will be to encourage and aid common schools in the South—that is, schools established, supported and superintended by the Southern people themselves. Apart from this leading object, the founding and maintenance of schools will not come within his plan. Usually, appropriations in moderate amounts will be made where such schools are izngulshing or are liable to be suspended for the went of the means of support. Similar aid, if uccessary, will be given in places unapplied with schools the contraction of the property of the contraction of support. For if, on the contrary, we are to have our finances tinkered with, the tariff altered, the national banking system reorganized, and entless diagnissions upon impeachment, then the hope of any activity in trade this faill is at an end. As we stated above, what the country requires and must have is entire treedom from all existing disturbing influences. Business is now apringing up on the present Business is now apringing up on the present basis, and it needs nothing but quie the consummation of the present hopes of an abundant harvest to give trade an impetus which will be left throughout the length and breadth of the land.
